- The Adirondack Thunder Non-Profit of the Night for CCFW is Saturday February 19th. A minimum of 4 volunteers are still needed to sell 50/50 tickets at the game. CCFW members receive 2 free game tickets. Additional tickets can be purchased for a $5 donation to CCFW. Let Kelly know if you want tickets! We're looking for another local non-profit to help sell tickets to the game, CCFW will split the proceeds from ticket sales with that organization. Contact Kelly if interested.
- The CCFW Annual Report has been printed and is being distributed throughout the community. You will each receive a copy at our next in-person meeting.
- Randy Marshall spoke to the group about his position as the Outreach CRPA at Healing Springs. Randy can be found at Moreau Community Center every Tuesday 12pm -2pm and at Corinth EMS every Thursday 12pm - 4pm providing on the spot Narcan training and talking with people about available addiction resources available through Healing Springs as well as his own journey to recovery.
- We have purchased CRM software from Donor View. We are prepaid through March 2023. Kelly will be entering all community contacts into the program in the coming weeks.
