CCFW Updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We welcomed Trinity Carter, our new part-time CCFW Youth Outreach Coordinator to the Coalition. Trinity will be working Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Thursdays at the Moreau Community 	Contact Kelly Stevens at ccfw-coordinator@preventioncouncil.org

Center and can be reached at ccfw-youth@preventioncouncil.org and by phone at 518-415-0973.

- Kelly shared a post on the ccfwsgf Facebook page regarding gun safety and a map of local agencies that will your keep guns safe and out of your home when not in use. Chief Gifford of the South Glens Falls Police Department is offering FREE Gun Locks, call or stop by their office on W. Marion Street to get one.
- Kelly is contracting with Stephen Hill to present at South High & Oliver Winch Middle School on May 9th & 10th. Check out his website at Stephen Hill – Motivational Speaker | Substance Use Prevention & Mental Health Awareness \(speaksobriety.com\)
- The South High Prom is scheduled for May 21, 2021; Kelly reserved Saratoga Strike Zone for the after-party.
- Kelly reserved the Adirondack Thunder Non-Profit of the Night event for Saturday February 19th. A minimum of 4 volunteers are needed to sell 50/50 tickets. A big thank you to Tim Cooper for being our first volunteer to sign up!
- The CCFW Annual Report has been printed and is being distributed throughout the community. You will each receive a copy at our next in-person meeting. Megan at the Prevention Resource Center (PRC)

	in Syracuse loved it and has forwarded it up to folks at OASAS in Albany!! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 26 teens came to the Bulldog Zone last night and enjoyed a holiday dinner complete with turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes and more. Leah Breear was a big hit with the kids as she spoke with them about sexual health and the services offered through Planned Parenthood. The teens literally swarmed her table as she unpacked her props! Thanks Leah, we'll see you again in January. • Kelly applied to the Marathon Dance committee for $2500 in funding to support the Bulldog Zone, fingers crossed. • If you or your agency would like to bring a program or activity to the Bulldog Zone please contact Kelly, Trinity or Donna. • Trinity will be meeting with the Youth Coalition very soon to plan their next fall/winter event, stay tuned. • Kelly refilled our Deterra displays throughout our district and set up a new box at Wilton Town Hall.
Update from the Moreau Community Center – Donna Nichols. Jenn Rich, Cheryl Lawler	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Holiday Caring program is well underway and the Senior Congregate Meal Site returns to the Center next week. The Bulldog Zone just received a $1,000 donation from a local resident which adds to a previous local donation of $750. The Center was awarded 	donna@moreaucommunitycenter.org

	youth programming grant money of which some of the funds can be allocated to support the Bulldog Zone.
Update from the South Glens Falls School District – Ray Ruby	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be on the lookout for the Strengths & Needs Assessment coming out from the school district. This assessment is in the form of a “thought exchange”. Please complete the assessment and share it with your SGF area contacts and on social media • South High students are meeting at Pine Knolls Alliance Church on December 10th for a “Day of Dialogue” 	rubyr@sgfcsd.org Kelly will share the link with the group when it becomes available
Update from Wellspring – Emma Mackey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emma is excited to be in Ballston Spa high school all next week brining programming around teen dating violence and more, to the students. Emma will also work with Trinity and Donna to bring a program to the Bulldog Zone. 	Prevention1@wellspringcares.org
Update from Saratoga County Public Health – Alex Barr	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alex needs to get more Suicide Prevention Coalition coffee sleeves distributed throughout Saratoga County, if you know any business or organization that can use some, contact Alex. 	ABarr@saratogacountyny.gov

Update from the Prevention Council – Kelly Stevens	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Prevention Council purchased a permanent drug disposal box for Corinth. The box sits adjacent to a sharps disposal drop box outside of Corinth EMS (Jessup’s Landing EMS). • Underage Gambling prevention classes were implemented in 7 Saratoga County schools in October including South High. Thanks to SGF Health Teacher Lora Higgins for administering the session. • 8 Saratoga County schools were provided with Red Ribbon Week banners and swag including South High, thanks to SADD Advisor Caitlin Hogan for distributing these and promoting our drug free message. • Healing Springs Outreach CRPA, Randy Marshall can be found at Moreau Community Center every Tuesday 12pm -2pm and at Corinth EMS every Thursday 12pm - 4pm providing on the spot Narcan trainings and talking with people about the addiction resources available through Healing Springs as well as his own journey to recovery. • In October the Youth Decide Underage Gambling program acknowledged the support of the CCFW, Moreau Community Center and CASA on a billboard on Rt. 9 in SGF. • In December the STOP DWI program will have a holiday Don’t Drink & Drive message on another billboard in the same location.
Update from Big Brothers Big Sisters – Bill Moon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Holiday Assistance / Toy Drive is underway at Big Brothers Big Sisters. • A big thank you to all CCFW members & friends who participated in Bowl for Kids’ Sake! 	bill@bbbssadk.org
