CCFW Updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Adirondack Thunder Non-Profit of the Night for CCFW is Saturday February 19th. 1-2 volunteers are still needed to sell 50/50 tickets in the lobby at the game. Thank you Becky & Tim for stepping up to help, who will join them selling tickets? CCFW members receive 2 free game tickets. Additional tickets can be purchased for a $5 donation to CCFW. Let Kelly know if you want tickets!

Attached is the radio announcement on Froggy 100.3's morning show running 2/7 – 2/11 offering free hockey tickets from CCFW

- The CCFW Annual Report was distributed to those in attendance.
- Kelly & Adam are working with Janelle Sipowicz and Ali Perry to create an interactive presentation for South High's Wellness Day on March 9th. More info to come.
- Kelly & Trinity are designing a new safe prom initiative named PROM Please Return On Monday. Materials are being created for South High and will include a collaboration with the SADD club. The initial roll-out was well received at the meeting.
- Pine Knolls Alliance Church has a very active religion-based youth group that meets every Wednesday evening. CCFW will join Pine Knolls in cross-promoting their program and the Bulldog Zone.
- Pine Knolls church has offered their youth building for large scale CCFW events.
- Brenda Hansson has volunteered to assist with the South High Wellness Day by providing Narcan training if approved by the school. Brenda is available to support the community with Narcan training/kits and Detera pouches as needed. Reach out to Brenda at bhansson@hmahec.org for more info.

Updates

- The Bulldog Zone continues to draw about 30+ kids each week. Two weeks ago we had 46 attendees! If you would like to present a topic or activity, contact Trinity or Donna. Ray networked with Business professor Kelli Hatin at SUNY Adirondack to bring her students to the Bulldog Zone to work with our kids. More details to come.
- The South High prom is May 21st and the CCFW sponsored After Prom Party will be held at Saratoga Strike Zone 10pm – 1am. Trinity and Meara are actively seeking prize donations for after prom. Trinity plans to be at the high school during prom ticket sales. Some prizes will be reserved for students who sign-up to attend after prom. Proposed prizes include, manicure/pedicure appointments, hair style appointments, free tuxedo rentals etc. that will off-set the cost of prom for students.
- If your business or organization would like to advertise in the South High Spring Musical playbill, contact Meara Lefevre at meara03@gmail.com or 845-331-8974. Business Card size ads $50, full page ads $100. The musical is scheduled for April 1st & 2nd.
